CENTRAL LIBRARY

"World Book Day"

RIT's Central Library was celebrated "World Book Day" on 25th April 2017. In 1995 UNESCO decided that 23rd April to celebrate "World Book Day" in memory of Death Anniversary of William Shakespeare.

To observe that day RIT Central Library was organized " New Added Book Exhibition" on 25th April 2017. In this exhibition we displayed Newly Added Collection in the RIT Central Library for the year 2016-2017 as well as novels, dramas, competitive exam books for all the library users.

Response for exhibition by users was very good. All faculty and students visited to exhibition. All readers were enjoyed book exhibition.

RIT Student Reading Club

Book Talk Review Exhibition

To increase the reading habit among the students, RIT Central Library started RIT Students Reading Club activity. In this activity four to five student formed their groups with a special name and registered group in library. They registered book name which they choosed for reading club.

The process of forming and registering group and selecting book was from 25th February 2017 to 10th March 2017. Total 15 groups were registered in library for this activity.

After that central library announced date for book talk review exhibition. Concept of book talk review exhibition was that students read selected book in group. They have to present book review in front of judge and all students. For that they have to prepare PPT. presentation or poster presentation.

On 13.04.2017 Central Library held "Book Talk Review Exhibition" on loan in front of main building porch. Total eight groups were exhibited their posters and PPT 's. And presented orally in front of judges and all visitors. They all presented which book they selected, what is the main theme of that book. What book tells. Almost total review of book, and all information they presented that was in group.

No any one of them was telling but all participants were presented review one by one.

It was good experience to all students and visitors. Such type of activities are really useful for students for building their confidence, for increasing their reading habit or for develop their reading habit.

Three judges were invited for judging student book talk review exhibition. They did good job. Prepared result and handed over to central library.

On the occasion of "World Book Day" library celebrated New books exhibition. And in that programme library made prize distribution of "Book Talk Review Exhibition."

Three groups received their prizes. Bookholics group got first prize they selected Dady Long Lags book. Second prize bagged by Vachal Tar Vachal group and they selected 7 Habits for Highly Effective People. Third prize woned by Ignited Minds group and they selected The Bhagwatgita.

Selection of all groups are very nice and they presented book review very attractive and confidently.

All Library staff, visitors, judge and participants are enjoyed Book Talk Review Exhibition.

Book Talk

RIT Central Library was organized Book Talk activity on 09.03.2017 for readers. In this activity our student Mr. Shubham Alamwar and Miss. Manali Jadhav were introduced book "Eka Dishecha Shodha." written by Sandip Waslekar.

The activity was organized in front of the CSE building on 09.03.2017 at 5.00 pm. Miss. Manali and Shubham gave introduction of book and told about the book what Sandip Waslekar expressed in his book.

The book talk experience was superb. Students response was tremendous.

The book review in short is as under.

Title: Eka Dishecha Shodh

Author: Sundeep Waslekar

Genre: Marathi- Self help

Speaker: 1) Manali Jadhav (S.Y.B.Tech CSE)

2) Shubham Alamwar (T.Y.B.Tech AUTO)

Keynote:

The book poses several challenges to the Indian society in its chapters on political system, social attitudes, terrorism, education, employment, environment and global developments. The book draws from practical experiences around the world, particularly emerging economies like China, Malaysia, Turkey and Brazil as well as established economies in Western Europe and North America, to demonstrate how a positive change can be made possible in a short period of 8-10 years

Sundeep Waslekar:

He is the author of the book and an Indian thought leader. He works as the president of Strategic Foresight Group which works as think tank in and outside India.

Review:

The book analyses challenges to India's future, which are currently outside the discourse in the media, and explains several strategies for the advancement of society, particularly economically weak sections of population. The book is easy to read, non-academic, and draws from personal experiences and anecdotes.

- 1) The incident happened with Mona Salin when she was about to take oath as the president of Sweden. (Chapter 2- Sinhasan)
- 2) The discussion of Mr. Waslekar with terrorists in the Kashmir which shows the true mentality of them and the problems in their lives.
- 3) The 3rd chapter named Andhali Koshimbir talks about blind imitation of Western culture, the whole chapter guides the youth about what to and what not to do.

Library Orientation Program:

The Orientation Program for First Year Engineering, M.Tech Diploma & MBA students held on Friday, August 05, 2016 & August 20, 2016

The Library Orientation program offers first year students an introduction to the Library's resources and services, as well as information on effective research strategies, to help make the first year student experience successful. The program also includes a short research activity designed to provide immediate immersion in the art of database searching, as well as serving as an assessment tool.

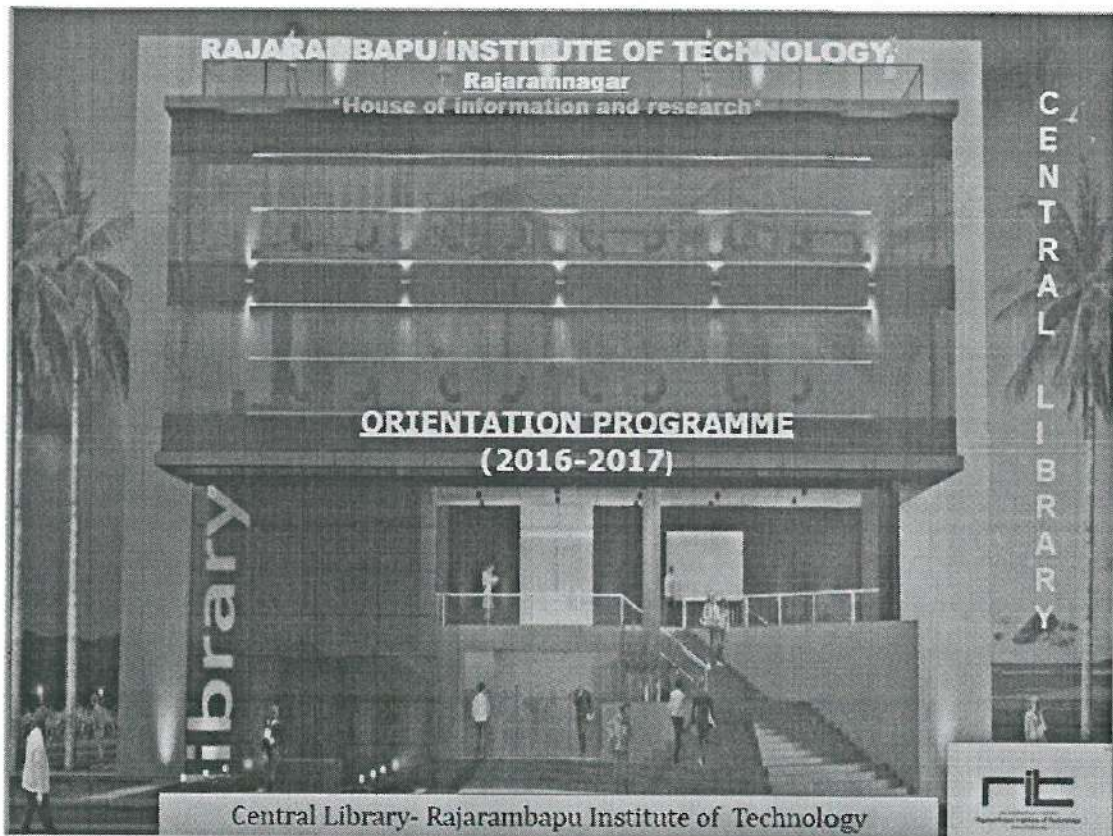

The Library Orientation program is designed as a short introduction to the library with basic information literacy skills. Course assignments and additional library sessions are needed to strengthen the acquisition of information literacy skills.

Program Content:

The 55 minute orientation provides an introduction to the Library's operations and services. About 45 minutes are spent giving students a "virtual tour" of the Library website, including:

- online catalog
- Journal Finder
- Library Rules and Regulations
- Book finder

The response was highly tremendous, more than 500 students was attended.
